a real-life PERSON

You could say that Alain Pepin leads a double life. In the morning he works in a surveying office, doing clerical work, but in the afternoons and at weekends he does something much more exciting — he is an underwater stuntman. In this week's article he tells us what a typical summer day in his life is like.

What time do you get up?

A typical summer day for me starts around 7 am. I have breakfast and ride my bike to work. I start work at 8 am. I spend all morning in front of my computer working until lunchtime.

What do you do after work?

Well, I leave the office at 1 pm and have lunch. If the weather is fine, I pack my equipment and set off to the location of the stunt. When I get there, I set up the equipment and get into the water. This is when the fun starts. I move about in and under the water in a wetsuit and helmet performing tricks. It's quite tiring though, because each stunt is different and takes a different length of time. A photo shoot usually takes a long time to complete because everything has to be perfect.

What do you do when you are not diving?

I enjoy going water-skiing, kayaking and snorkelling. I spend most of my spare time, however, planning, practising and training for my stunts.

How do you like working underwater?

I love it. It can be a bit boring in the winter, though, when the weather is cold. It is difficult to get a swimming pool all to myself so I can practise. But when I'm diving, I really enjoy it. Every time I come home after work, I feel full of energy and I have a great sense of achievement.

The Hound of the Baskervilles

A New Case for Sherlock Holmes

A man called Dr Mortimer comes to see Sherlock Holmes, the famous London detective.

Well ... do you know about the curse of the Baskerville family?

Dr Mortimer, you know my friend Dr Watson, don't you? Now, how can we help you?

Sit down by the fire and tell us about it.

In June, Sir Charles Baskerville died. The hound killed him!

What a frightening story!

It's interesting, but it's only an old legend. What do you want me to do?

I want you to protect Sir Henry Baskerville. Sir Charles was a very rich man. Now his nephew, Sir Henry, will inherit all his money and property.

Writing (a story)

To write a story we first decide on the type of story, the plot and the main characters. Our story can be a comedy, a spy story, a thriller, an adventure story, a detective story, a fairy tale, etc.

In the first paragraph, we write when and where the event happened, who the people in the story were, what the weather was like and what happened first.

In the main body, we describe the events in the order they happened. One of the events should be the climax event. We can use so, because, and, also etc to join our sentences or ideas.

In the last paragraph, we write what happened in the end and how the people in the story felt.

We can use a variety of adjectives or adverbs to make our story more interesting. We normally use past tenses in stories.

34 Replace the words in bold with words in the list, then suggest other synonyms.

- terrible • tiny • lovely • extremely • well-behaved

- It was a nice May afternoon.
- The room was small but clean.
- The weather was bad.
- Emma grew into a good but lively child.
- They were all very happy.

We can start or end a story by:

- asking a rhetorical question (i.e. a question which requires no answer) e.g. Why did we have to go through so much suffering?
- addressing the reader directly e.g. Are you afraid of spiders?
- referring to moods/feelings e.g. Ivan was cold, wet and miserable by the time he reached the finishing line.
- using direct speech e.g. "I can't wait to go," said Anne.

NOTE: We can also start a story by describing a person or a place.

e.g. "I looked at the sweet elderly lady trying to remember who she was. Her round face, white curly hair and friendly blue eyes were familiar to me." (person)

"I parked the car, got out and locked the door. I looked at Mrs Aston's house. It was a small stone cottage with a colourful garden. I felt relaxed as I walked along the path toward the wooden front door." (place)

35 Match the beginnings and endings. Which techniques did the writer use in each extract?

A The hot Peruvian sun was burning Professor Bingham's bare head as he studied the map of the Andes. He was hot and tired but excited. He knew he was close to finding the hidden city in the mountains of Peru.

B What would you do if a tigress looked at you sadly through the bars of a cage? I couldn't forget that question as Ran, my guide, and I set off to release Tara back into the wild.

1 Breathless but excited, the Professor stood among the ruins of the ancient city. "This is it!" he said. "It wasn't just a legend after all!"

2 As Tara disappeared into the jungle, Ran and I felt relieved. Tara was going to be safe in her new home. She was back where she truly belonged at last.

36 Read the following beginning and ending, then rewrite them applying one or more of the techniques mentioned above.

Ben got up early because he had a long journey ahead of him. He was driving across the country to spend the holidays with his parents. The weather forecast said it was going to snow.

Two days later Ben arrived at his parents' house without his car or his suitcase. He was very tired. His parents were pleased to see him. Ben was happy, too.

38 The last picture of the story is missing. What do you think happened in the end? Listen and check if your guesses were correct. Now draw the last picture of the story.

THE ADVENTURES OF HUCKLEBERRY FINN

How It All Started

My name's Huckleberry Finn — but everyone just calls me "Huck" — and this is the story of my adventures. It all started with my best friend, Tom Sawyer ...

Gold coins, Tom! We're rich!

We can ask Judge Thatcher to look after the money for us.

Here you are, boys — a dollar each, every day of your lives!

Thank you, Judge Thatcher.

Widow Douglas has got something to say, Huck ...

... you live in the woods like a wild animal, and don't go to school ...

Huck, no one has seen your father for a year ...

You need a real home, Huck. I want you to come and live with me like my son.

A FEW MONTHS LATER ...

Well, Huck — how is life at the widow's?

It's hard, Tom! Wearing smart clothes, going to school ... and the widow's sister, Miss Watson, makes lots of rules. I like Jim, though — he's Miss Watson's slave.

Jim, I'm scared! My pap has come back!

But Huck, everyone says that your father's dead.

Well, everyone's wrong, then. See — that mark is from Pap's boot!

THAT NIGHT ...

Pap!

You think you're better than me, don't you? Going to school, sleeping in a fancy bed ... and people say you're rich!

Ow! Please, Pap — don't!

Air Adventure

Kate felt very excited as she climbed the steps and boarded the plane. It was the first time she had ever travelled alone and she was looking forward to the adventure. 1

She found her seat and made herself comfortable. She felt a little nervous when the air hostesses told the passengers what to do in an emergency, but once the plane had taken off, she soon forgot her worries. She gazed out of the window in amazement as the English countryside grew smaller and smaller beneath her. 2 She closed her eyes and, before long, she was fast asleep.

Suddenly, a loud roaring noise woke her. She opened her eyes and looked around in panic. 3 They looked scared, but they spoke calmly to the passengers and told everyone not to be afraid. "What's happening?" Kate asked. "There's a small problem with one of the engines," replied one of the air hostesses. "It's nothing to worry about."

Nevertheless, Kate was worried. The roaring sound grew louder and louder and the plane began to rock from side to side. Some of the passengers screamed. 4 Kate fastened her seatbelt and gripped the edge of her seat tightly as the plane went down.

The plane hit the earth with a loud bump and raced along the ground. Kate saw trees and plants rush past her window. 5 Everyone was relieved that the worst was over. Kate smiled as she got onto the bus which would take her to the nearest airport. "Travelling alone really is an adventure!" she thought.

- A Then, the pilot announced that they would have to make an emergency landing.
- B She was going to visit her aunt and uncle in Spain.
- C Kate smiled and went back to sleep.
- D When the plane finally stopped, the passengers cheered.
- E Soon, the plane was high above the clouds and Kate felt relaxed and happy.
- F The air hostesses were walking down the aisle.

Edinburgh Castle

1 Edinburgh Castle, situated high above the city on Castle Rock, was once the home of the kings and queens of Scotland. The 700-year-old Crown of Scotland is still on display there, and the Royal apartments include a tiny room where the future king of England, James I, was born in 1566.

2 The castle was the site of many battles with the English. Over the centuries it survived many attempts to destroy it, which is why many Scots see it as a symbol of their own survival.

3 Visitors to the castle will see a military guard at the gate, because the castle is still the headquarters of the army's Scottish Division. The famous Military Tattoo is also held here every August. This is a spectacular three-week festival of bagpipe and band music, marching and displays by Scottish regiments.

4 Edinburgh Castle houses exhibitions of Scottish history and a collection of armour and weapons. As well as what there is to see inside, the castle's hilltop position offers the best views of the city.

Osborne House

1 Osborne House is located on the Isle of Wight, overlooking the sea. A beautiful Italian-style stately home, it was the holiday home of Queen Victoria and her family.

2 Osborne House has been kept almost exactly as it was when Queen Victoria lived and died there. The rooms are full of the Queen's personal possessions, including pictures and books. Visitors can also see how the Royal Family spent their leisure time. In the grounds there is a Swiss cottage designed as a playhouse for the royal children, as well as beautiful gardens open to the public.

3 One of the jewels of Osborne House is the Durbar Room. The beautifully decorated walls and ceiling were made by Indian craftsmen. This room was where Victoria entertained heads of state, but it was also where her children used to perform plays for their parents.

4 Queen Victoria saw Osborne House as her home, and its privacy was an escape from the formal atmosphere of Buckingham Palace.

Today it stands as a memorial to Britain's much-loved and longest reigning queen.

- A A room for official and family occasions
- B Playground of the rich and famous
- C A holiday home
- D A private place
- E House and gardens

b) Use your dictionary to look up the words in bold. Then, make notes under each of the headings, and use your notes to talk about each building.

Mexico is one of the most beautiful and diverse countries in the world with a wide variety of landscapes and ecosystems. Mexico has it all: deserts, swamps, snow-capped mountains, volcanoes, tropical forests and even deserted beaches. The traditions of dozens of cultures still remain in Mexico making it an exciting holiday destination. There is something for everyone from ancient ruins and camping to luxury hotels. Whatever time of year you decide to visit, get ready to enjoy one of the most memorable holidays of your life.

Itinerary

A Mexico City (Days 1-4)

The tour begins in this crowded city of over 20 million people. It is the country's capital and was built on the ruins of Tenochtichlan, dating back to Aztec times. In the centre of the city lies the Plaza de la Constitución, which was built from stones taken from this ancient city. A short walk will take you to The Alameda, one of the largest parks in Mexico City. Originally an Aztec marketplace, it is now surrounded by museums, bustling markets, shops and restaurants. If you want a quick bite to eat, street vendors can be found virtually everywhere selling good food at reasonable prices. If you're ready for a night out on the town, then head to the Zona Rosa where you can enjoy lively performances of traditional music and dance.

B Puerto Vallarta
(Days 5-7)

Situated at the foot of the imposing Sierra Madre Mountains, romantic Puerto Vallarta is little more than an hour's flight away from the capital. You will fall in love with the quaint charm of the Mexican village atmosphere with its cobbled streets, fine old buildings and beautiful squares. Puerto Vallarta's white sandy beaches stretch for over a hundred miles of unspoilt coastline so you will certainly be able to find a peaceful spot to relax.

C Guadalajara (Days 8-10)

Guadalajara is located in the heart of the country and is the second largest city in Mexico. It has a rich history and has maintained its Spanish colonial atmosphere. Guadalajara is where 'mariachi' music, the Mexican Hat Dance, the sombrero and the Mexican rodeo originated. If you're lucky enough to be in the city during the October Festival, you will have the opportunity to see the rodeo and witness breathhtaking displays of horsemanship.

D Acapulco (Days 11-15)

Finally, we end our tour in fantastic Acapulco on the Pacific coast. It is undoubtedly the most famous of Mexico's cities and is renowned for its glamour and luxury. The resort stretches for ten miles around Acapulco Bay and there are numerous white beaches offering a wide variety of water sports, but many of you may prefer to laze on the beaches or stroll along the promenade. If a little adventure is what you're looking for, then you will marvel at the famous La Quebrada cliff divers who leap from unbelievably high cliffs into the shallow water below.

I live in a trailer. 'Gorjias', as we call non-gypsies in our language, sometimes refer to our homes as caravans, but we prefer to use the word trailer. My horse Jezi pulls ours along. It's very important for us gypsies to have reliable horses because of all the travelling that we do over different terrains.

My trailer was built back in 1933, by my uncle. I changed the canvas roof only last year. Now it has a well-made beige roof and the beautiful wheels are painted bright red! We've had many good times in our home on wheels, but we've had some tough moments too.

I grew up in this wagon, with my brother Jess and my parents who have since passed away. Now it's just Nelly and I, but we travel with company or 'kumpania' as it's known in our language.

Of course it's not like in the old days before the war. My grandparents used to tell stories of gypsy wagon trains that were so long they stretched from one horizon to the other. They were a travelling community. There were a lot more travellers in those days, though. It's hard to make a living these days.

Although we do still travel around a lot, living in a chilly and damp climate like that of Britain, means that we're forced to stay put through the winter. Even though some of these aren't very pleasant, we make the most of our temporary home by singing and dancing and knowing that we have the freedom to move on when we please.

Our life is about being on the move, and we're not interested in owning land or having our own country. We don't care about owning or living in a house. For me, home is my trailer, home is being outside with nature. Basically 'home' is where you feel that you belong, or as Gorjias would say, 'home is where the heart is'.

- A Our 'kumpania' consists of my two sons and their families, which include our four little grandchildren.
- B You see, 'home' has more than one meaning.
- C It used to be in a bright shade of yellow, and my mother had decorated it with lovely brass bells and ribbons.
- D The children like playing outside and have a lot of fun.
- E It is then that we stop at the council-run gypsy sites.
- F She's a strong and sturdy creature, with a calm and gentle nature.
- G I wish I'd lived back then.

Or a 1)	In 5) or countryside
You might live in a windmill	A home can keep you safe
Or high up in a tree	And you can lock the

While others live alone	It may not be luxurious
But we all need a special place	But one 7) is for sure
Where we can 3)	Home's a place where you feel
at home	8)
Home is where the heart is	And cosy and secure
It's comforting to know	It's important to have somewhere

You've got somewhere to go	your own
Your worries disappear	The smallest terraced house

And all your stress and troubles	Home is where the heart is ...
Don't matter anymore
