

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	XI
1. An Author's Argument.....	1
2. Jefferson, Yoknapatawpha – A Double Fictive Map Alive	3
3. (Time)Telling on a Map: “Drawn by Desire” in Books by Michael Ondaatje and William Faulkner	11
4. “We the People:” Townsfolk of Jefferson, Yoknapatawpha	19
5. “When Will I Be Blown Up?” – William Faulkner's Writing Warfare	34
6. Old South (M)other(ing): Benjamin Button (in F. Scott Fitzgerald's story), Emily Grierson, Zilphia Gant (in William Faulkner's stories).....	46
7. Poor White Trash of Yoknapatawpha: The Bundren Clan (As I Lay Dying , 1930)	56
8. Addie – The Return of the Letter A	68
9. Between Traum(a) and (Meta)Fiction: Lost Cause Letters, Hunger and Parties in Modern Prose – William Faulkner's Absalom, Absalom! and Margaret Mitchell's Gone with the Wind	77
10. Africanism, Evanescence and/or Endurance in Light in August (1932).....	100
11. A Clan in the (Un)Making: The Snopeses of The Hamlet (1940).....	108
12. The Upstart Turned Respectable: Flem Snopes of The Town (1957)	129

13. Dreaming of Revenge: Mink Snopes of The Mansion (1959).....	142
14. Dreaming out of Defeat: Flags in the Dust (1973).....	154
15. Dreaming of the Impossible South: Gavin Stevens of Intruder in the Dust (1948).....	167
16. Modern “Twice-Told Tales,” or, Uncollected Stories of William Faulkner (1979)	175
17. Faulkner’s Most Uncanny Stories (Uncollected Stories II)	187
18. Out of Yoknapatawpha (I): Avatars of the Anti-Heroic Couple – William Faulkner’s The Wild Palms (1939) and Richard Yates’ Revolutionary Road (1961)	196
19. Out of Yoknapatawpha (II): Mosquitoes (1927) – An Aesthetic Investment/Investigation	207
20. Out of Yoknapatawpha (III): from Robert Frost to William Faulkner’s Poems in Verse and His Poems in Prose.....	218
21. Some Lessons before/beyond Yoknapatwpha: from R.W. Emerson to Wallace Stevens and William Faulkner	230
22. Instead of a Conclusion: Putting Yoknapatwpha on Our Map	242
23. William Faulkner and His Contemporaries: A Chronological and Biographical Key	244
The Two Maps of Jefferson, Yoknapatwpha County.....	257
Works Cited	259