

Jenny Dooley - Virginia Evans

The Little Engine That Could

TEXTS & PICTURES

Express Publishing

It's summer on the mountain, and all the girls and boys
have got a big bazaar today
with yummy food and toys!

Now here comes Edith Engine
with toys for the bazaar:
she's got some dolls, a teddy bear,
a clown and a red car!

Picture Dictionary

TOYS

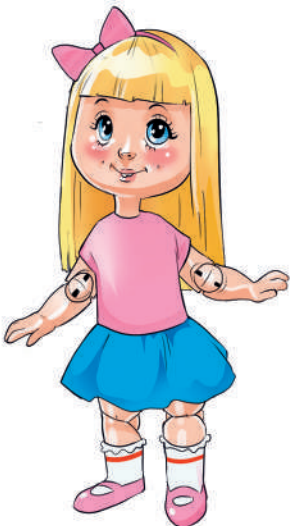

bike

car plane

doll

teddy bear

clown

Now let's act it out!

Characters: Narrator Car
Edith Engine Rusty Engine
Big Ted Clown
Slinky Engine Timmy Engine
Doll Children
Steamy Engine

Narrator: It's summer on the mountain,
and all the girls and boys
have got a big bazaar today
with yummy food and toys!
Now here comes Edith Engine
with toys for the bazaar:
she's got some dolls, a teddy bear,
a clown and a red car!

Edith: Oh dear, oh dear, oh deary!
I don't feel well today.
I'm really sick! I can't go on—the mountain's far away!

Narrator: Big Ted is very worried.

Big Ted: Oh dear! This is so bad!
The children waiting for these toys will really be so sad!

Yay! Here comes Slinky Engine!
Hey, Slinky! Can you stop?
We need your help to get these toys up on the mountain top!

Narrator: But Slinky isn't stopping.

Slinky: I can't, I can't, I can't!
I'm really in a hurry now.
I really can't do that!

Narrator: So Slinky keeps on going.
The toys just wave goodbye.

Big Ted: We need some help to pull the train.
Why can't somebody try?

Jenny Dooley - Virginia Evans

The Little Engine That Could

PICTURE VERSION

ISBN 978-1-4715-3015-9

9 781471 530159

Express Publishing