

Once upon a time there was a man and a woman.
They wished for a child. After a long time their wish came true.

2

to wish (wished): to want something to come (came) true: to be real

The man and woman often looked out of the window.
They saw a beautiful garden. In the garden there were flowers and herbs. There was a big wall around the garden.

window: you can look through a window and see outside garden: the place outside a house where plants and flowers grow herbs: plants you can eat

3

The garden belonged to a witch. Everybody was afraid of her. One day the woman saw a lovely, green herb in the garden. She really wanted to eat this herb. But no one allowed in the garden.

belong (belonged) to: the garden belongs to the witch: it is her garden witch: a woman who can use magic to do good or bad things lovely: very nice

to be (was) allowed: it is OK to do something

