

Geoff Tranter

Using Humour in the English Classroom

Teaching ideas and activities

Ernst Klett Sprachen
Stuttgart

Contents

Introduction .....	6	Running Gags
Definition		Introduction.....	62
Introduction.....	8	Riddles .....	65
Doodles .....	12	Waiter, Waiter .....	68
Acronyms .....	13	Doctor, Doctor .....	70
Funny Definition .....	14	Knock, Knock .....	72
Proverbs and Idioms .....	16	I say .....	73
PC Language .....	19	Signs and Instructions
Murphy's Law .....	21	Introduction.....	74
Oxymorons.....	22	English Signs.....	77
Playing with Words		International Tourism Signs.....	79
Introduction.....	23	Church Signs .....	81
Tom Swiftly .....	25	Warnings .....	83
They Never Die .....	28	Names, Shops and Professions.....	84
The End of the Road .....	30	Miscellaneous
Authors.....	32	Introduction.....	86
Classic Native-Speaker Mistakes		Anagrams.....	89
Introduction.....	34	Tongue Twisters .....	91
Spoonerisms .....	36	Heaven and Hell .....	92
Malapropisms.....	38	The Thinnest Books in the World .....	93
Howlers.....	40	Homophones.....	95
Letters.....	41	Limericks .....	96
Graffiti and Street Culture		Language Learning .....	99
Introduction.....	43	Key .....	101
Who Rules?.....	45
I used to be .....	47
One-liners.....	48
Rhyming Slang .....	50
Bingo.....	51
Newspapers and Newsletters
Introduction.....	52
Headlines .....	54
Short News Reports.....	56
Church News .....	58
Small Ads .....	60		